

COMFORT . . .

Roominess of both passenger and driver compartments and rational design of seats afford comfortable accommodation for the passengers and the driver. The panoramic windshield and rear window ensure almost all-round visibility and provide with plenty of light. The ventilating and heating systems provide with fresh air and allow to maintain the desired air temperature level during cold seasons. The interior of a car has been finished in luxurious and austere style.

Russische Klassieker
Club Nederland

